DATE: 6TH MAY, 2005.

P.C.

. From the order of eviction dated 10th May, 2004 we find no interim relief as been granted. However, the State was directed to dispose of the application, which was pending before it. It appears that the application has been rejected. If that be the case nothing survives in the present Petition.

2. However, on behalf of the Respondent Society the learned Counsel points out that a fresh representation has been made and also produces minutes of the meeting of the general body. We do not propose to go into the issue it is for the State Government to consider representation as made.

. The Petition stand disposed of. No order as to costs.
